Cancelled for Letters.—The following is the list of letters uncanceled for in the post-office at Woodstock, Vermont, Aug. 28, 1885:

Miss Lucy Degar.
Miss Addie C. Buell.
George E. Buell.

William Boynton, or Mrs. William Boynton, at English Mills.
Mrs. W. J. Amundsen.
Gertrude Abbott.

Miss Maurine Haskelle.
Rev. J. M. Emory.
Miss Fry.
C. E. Henry.

H. S. Wheelock.
Mrs. Jerusha H. Smith.
L. B. Parker.
Mrs. George L. Pratt.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say, "Advertised."

WM. D. McMASTER, P. M.

Rev. H. J. VanDyke, Jr., D. D., pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York City, will preach at the Cong'l church next Sabbath, the 30th inst.

—Tomorrow comes, and we are where? Then let us live to-day!

PENCIL MARKS.—Fires and overcoats are in good demand this morning.

—The Kieckheafers have folded their tents and are off to-day for other "pastures green."—The praise meeting at the Universalist church on Sunday evening last was largely attended and very entertaining.

—A summer boarder, a nice young lady, at Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Taylor's, on River street; now, boys, don't go every evening, it is getting to be cold weather, fuel is high, and the old man would like it if you do; she's going to stay right along.

—F. P. Archibald has recently erected in his cellar a large brick cistern of 60 barrels capacity, with filter attached.

—Have you laid in a stock of Indian "Sagwa"?—Mrs. F. P. Archibald has roses bushes that are filled with buds and blossoms—something rare for the season.

—J. H. Hurdock is making extensive repairs and additions to his house; the addition will make it two stories in front, and, judging from the plan, it will be a handsome and needed improvement; he ought to have "Nate" on the job; a few years ago he and Nate would put up a house in a day and have it ready for a family at night; they have built over 50 houses in this village.

—William H. Keating, our popular hair-dresser, and Simeon Fisher, who works for F. C. Baker, blacksmith, are "taking in" Claremont; Mr. Edward Dagle has full charge of the tinsmith's emporium during the Professor's absence.

—Neighbor Wm. Boyce is "raiding" on his cousins in the rural districts this week.

—Mrs. Peter Garten is visiting friends in Claremont; this is the first time, during fifteen years of married life, that she has been away from home to stay over night.

—Miss Emma N. Dunham has returned from a visit to friends in Saratoga and Rutland.

—Mrs. Dr. Currier and daughter who have been visiting at her sister's, Mrs. J. R. Murdock, returned to their home in Castleton Saturday.

—The Woodstock baseball club play the Lebanon, at Lebanon, to-day.

—John Bailey has purchased of Dick Welch the "Duplex" house on River street, for $450.

—The base ball nine have ordered their uniforms.

—Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, who has been sick with consumption for some time, died at her home on Sunday, aged 54 years.

—We feel lonesome since Bro. Greene shingled his roof—we miss the patter of the gentle rain on our classic head in every shower for seventeen years!

—The Woodstock Dramatic Club have turned over the Town Hall new stage scenery to the Selectmen to be the property of the town.

ONE MORE GRAND EXCURSION.—There will be an excursion over the Woodstock R. R., in connection with the Passumpsic, to Newport and Bay View Park, Wednesday, Sept. 2nd.

—Railroad ride, boat ride, opera—all included in price of trip tickets.

—Train leaves Woodstock at 8:20 a. m. Returning—Leave Bay View Park at 3:30; Newport, 4:30; arrive at W. R. Junction at 8:00.

—Train leaves for Woodstock on arrival of excursion train at W. R. J. Fare for the round trip—Woodstock, $1.40; Taffville, $1.35; Quechee and Dewey's Mills, $1.25. This is cheaper than staying at home. Tickets at stations.

—The Praise Meeting at the Universalist church last Sunday evening was attended by a large congregation, and was highly enjoyed by all present.

—It was a musical treat not often furnished to our citizens. Such meetings are not only pleasant, but very profitable to the community. Let them be repeated.

—What shall I do to keep my hair from coming out?" writes an anxious subscriber. Be good at home, anyway—that will help some.

L. B. Marble's house, near the old factory boarding house, was entered on Saturday night last, by burglars.

The thieves gained an entrance through the pantry window, where they stopped and helped themselves to what cooked viands they could find, and then proceeded to another room on the same floor, occupied by his son John, who upon hearing some one in his room roused up, and thinking perhaps his mother had come into his room for something spoke to her, when the thief turned and fled. John soon discovered his mistake, however, and was out of bed and after them in an instant, when the thief fled through the pantry window, the same way they came, making good their escape, and taking along part of the window in their hurry to get out.

High school festival at the Town Hall, Friday eve, 28th inst. Go.

South Woodstock.

The Spirit of the Age, that means this age, and that spirit is liberty to interview any one you please upon any subject and publish the result. Now Mac, we verily believe that great wisdom and sagacity must have mysteriously fallen upon you or you could never ousted the astute officials of the past administration. So please answer our inquiries: Are eggs taken from a neighbor's premises and exchanged for raisins and candies, and discovered added, could such legitimate acts by minor lads be judged immoral and guilty of theft? old superstitions fogies of the place talk that. 2d Question: When a neighbor is poor and earns but little, and has animals to care for and feed, but a well off neighbor has a plenty of pork, butter and other good things, can it be sinful to enter his cellar or larder, without noise or threatening, to get food to sustain himself and animals? What answer will President Cleveland and his officials give?

YOUNG AMERICA.

The fall term of the Green Mountain Perkins Academy will begin on next week Wednesday, Sept. 2. C. H. Darling, who was so well liked last year, will continue as Principal, assisted by Miss Grace G. Marble of Woodstock, a young lady most thoroughly qualified for the position. Students fitting for business, teaching or college, will find this an excellent opportunity with the least expense. A large attendance is expected the coming term.

The following by Rev. Sam Jones, the noted Georgia revivalist, will hit some "cases" here:—

AN EXCELSIOR SIN.—Profanity, the excelsior sin of profanity. No character in it—no money in it—no nothing that will make you a good citizen or help you in eternity. What do you want to swear for? Does it do you any good? Make anybody think any more of you? Make any money by it? Some fellow said once that when the devil wanted to catch any other sort of sinner he put bait on the hook and covered the point; but when he wanted to catch a profane swearer, he just used the naked hook, and the fool gobbled it down and was pulled into hell. I have heard it said of this sin that it not only makes a rascal out of a fellow but it makes a fool out of him. Oh, profanity, the sin of profanity! I want to put the question before you so that you will see that if you are a profane man, whatever else you are, you lack that much of being a gentleman. I tell you that these railroad trains have got so now, that they put on sleeping cars and ladies' cars and smoking cars and baggage cars and mail cars and every sort of car except one, and I want that sort on very soon now, and that is a cursing car (sensation) put every black mouthed rascal in there who has broken this commandment. You don't want him amongst decent travelling people.

Taffville.

During the thunder storm of week before last the lightning followed one of the telephone wires to E. C. Emmons' house, tearing off a clapboard and making a noise like a pistol shot, only very much louder. Mr. Emmons, who was sitting in a chair by the kitchen stove, went to the door to see what was going on, and had just taken his seat again when there was another report like the first, and another clapboard sent flying in the air. The wires are now disconnected from his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer, of Montpelier, are visiting at her uncle's, T. M. Ryders, where they gave some excellent music on the violin and organ on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Marcy has returned from a few days visit among friends in Hartland.

—F. D. Metcalf and wife have returned from their visit to New Hampshire.

—Mrs. Wilson, who has been quite sick at Woodstock for some time, is now at her father's, J. P. Parkhurst's.

—W. H. Brownell has returned after several weeks absence.

D. & B. Hathaway are making repairs on their mill.

—D. G. Spaulding has commenced making brick at his yard.

There is quite a strife for the post-office here. Petitions have been circulated for I. H. Archer and Charles Hill, and we learn that several others are anxious to sacrifice themselves for their country in that capacity.

One month ago it was thought to be a hard job to find any one who would accept the office. Surely we are fast becoming democratic in this "city."

Windsor.

Thomas O'Brien was struck by an engine, one morning last week, and severely injured about the head, but is out again.

The order of the Eastern Star initiated six new members last week.

Mr. Howard has built a new brick sidewalk in front of his store.

Among the past week visitors are: Jos. White and family of Coleraine, Mass., Frank Wheeler of Saxton's River, Vt., T. R. Mallory and family of Athol, Mass., and Miss Mary Dunbar of North Hartland.

A little son of R. T. Jones came very near drowning while wading in the river, but was rescued just as he was sinking for the last time.

Will Corliss started on his vacation last Monday.

W. E. Wilson and C. Johnson and wives returned from their vacation trip last Friday.

Capt. Waldron, a retired sea captain, died at the home of Harrison Marcy last Sunday, and the funeral took place Tuesday. Mrs. Marcy is the Captain's only child.

Bridgewater.

Mrs. Z. A. Marsh is having a portico built on the ell part of her house.

The Woodstock little nines, aided by a few of the second nines, came up recently and were defeated by the Bridgewater 1st nines, and last Saturday the Woodstock second nine came up and licked the nines handsomely. Score 21 to 6.

I noticed in the Auk, from the Barnard correspondent, that L. D. Spaulding, of Plainfield, N. H., has bought back his old homestead and moved back on to it. Now the said old homestead never was in the town of Barnard and Mr. Spaulding's stay there ends with the buying season for this year.

J. Y. Briggs has a low Dutch cabbage growing in his garden that measures 2 feet and 11 inches in circumference, solid head. Who beats at this time of year?

Mrs. John Bassett, while getting out of her carriage recently, caught her foot and fell, breaking her arm near the elbow and bruising her hip very badly.

The young people of Bridgewater Corners will hold a festival and musical entertainment at Josselyn Hall, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 1st. Admission to hall FREE. The Bridgewater cornet band will be in attendance. All are invited to attend.

The next meeting of Quechee Valley Pomona Grange will be with Bridgewater Grange, Saturday, Sept. 5th.

Hartland.

Ten or twelve couples visited Oleuts Falls last Saturday. They all had a grand time.

A picnic is talked of in Mr. Evans' grove in Windsor, called "Paradise," probably sometime next week.

A missionary concert will be held at the Cong'l church next Sunday evening.

The meeting was fully attended last Sunday at the Four Corners. Five adult persons and two children were baptised. Mr. Tiltonson is one of our best preachers.

Died in Hartland Aug. 21, Harris Miller, aged 61 years. Mr. Miller was one of our best citizens. He had always lived in town and had held several offices of importance, and was a man of strict integrity and industrious habits. He suffered a great deal during his last illness. Truly one of our most worthy and noble men has gone from our midst.

South Royalton.

H. H. Whitcomb is to be the new postmaster here.

C. P. Tarbell and wife and A. H. Lamb, wife and daughter, are camping at Lake Dunmore.

The o. p. here has been postmaster twenty-five years. If there is anything to it he has had it long enough, and if there isn't he has it.

H. P. Gifford, a merchant of North Royalton, had a desperate encounter with a burglar in his house last Thursday night. The burglar fired one shot which wounded Mr. Gifford, but the latter overpowered the thief, and help being summoned he was captured. He was well armed and had $200 on his person. A bag containing watches and jewelry was found near the house. The burglar gave his name as Jackson Smith of New York. He now languishes in the jail at Woodstock.

Plymouth.

One day recently as George Hackett of Sherburne was working in the hay field, a hornet stung him on the under jaw and poisoned him so that in a few minutes he broke out in large blotches all over, and for a time it was thought he was dying; but by the external application of soda dissolved in water, and the internal application of spirits, the poison was neutralized, and he recovered.

Rochester.

Samuel A. Huntington, a hard-working citizen of this place, aged 63, hanged himself recently in his orchard. He left a note saying he was sober, in his right mind and no one would ever know why he killed himself. He leaves a widow and five children.

Norwich.

In the thunder storm last week Ira Burton reports the loss of one half his flock of sheep of 90 old ones, 16 lambs, and 4 black sheep. It divided them equally mostly under a tree where the lightning struck.

East Barnard.

Bertha Davis of Bridgewater is spending her vacation at her father's here.

Quite a delegation go from here to attend the Universalist convention to be held in Bellows Falls this week.

Cora Leavitt went to Randolph last Monday, where she is going to attend the Normal school the coming term.

William Bannister and his family start for Dakota Thursday of this week to make a home there.

Lottie Stevens returns to Brattleboro this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Graves from California, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity for a few days, started for her home last week, accompanied as far as Chicago by her brother, Osborne.

George Cheney and wife of Cambridge, Mass., are spending their vacation with Ethel Allen's people.

Pomfret.

Curtis Nelson was summoned to Bridgewater the 16th inst., to attend the funeral of his brother Levi's only daughter, who died the 14th inst. of cerebro spinal meningitis. She was five years of age.

N. C. Livingston and J. C. Keith went to George's pond, N. H., fishing last week and brought home a very nice string of pickerel, besides a host of pouts.

Mrs. Harry Allen, who has been sick since last fall is convalescing.

E. K. Walker started his goods for Exeter, N. H., Tuesday of last week. Mr. Walker and family went Thursday.

Lyman Porter takes the lead on hens' eggs, having brought in one measuring eight inches around one way by six and one half the other.

Barnard.

We are getting religion slowly up here. Three persons were baptized at the M. E. Church one Sabbath recently, by Rev. H. F. Reynolds.

Rev. S. A. Parker of Bethel has been engaged to preach at the Universalist church once in four weeks the coming year.

Apples will be plenty this fall and cider will be cheap. There is also an abundant supply of butternuts and beechnuts.

Rutland.

County Court Sept. 8.

The Rutland Cornet Band is to have an excursion to Lake George Sept. 1.

The "Lios" railroad is assured, and a company has been organized to push the enterprise.

A Fair Haven youth "warmed up" here the other day, and it threw him out of pocket $15 and costs. Rutland bug juice is bad stuff.

The female polo teams, the "Newports" and "Nantaskets" will appear at the rink September 8.

Samuel Hayward is dangerously sick with black gangrene in one foot.

Rev. Judah Dana, formerly of this place, is now regularly officiating at St. John's Episcopal Church, Manchester.

T. J. Boynton, of Johnson, United States Post-Office Inspector, visited the Rutland post-office Thursday.

The utmost that farmers can get for milk delivered at factories is two cents per quart, while village milk men charge five cents per quart. A milk war seems imminent.

This town is taking great strides toward a minority and its resultant evils, having the requisite number of people, electric lights and the horse railroad. The latter is prospective, but it is sure to come.
